Waheed Mohamed, DDS, MD

Dual Board-Certified Cosmetic Surgeon & Oral & Maxillofacial Surgeon in Charlotte, NC

Dr. Waheed V. Mohamed, a fellowship-trained and double board-certified cosmetic surgeon and oral and maxillofacial surgeon, has been serving the Charlotte community and beyond with exceptional cosmetic and facial reconstructive surgery since 2012.

Originally from the Lone Star State, Dr. Mohamed completed a fellowship in full body Cosmetic Surgery at The Cosmetic Surgical Center of Texas after training in Oral & Maxillofacial Surgery in New Orleans, LA. Dr. Mohamed received his undergraduate degree from the University of Texas at Austin, earned his Doctor of Dental Surgery from Baylor College of Dentistry in Dallas, and completed an internship in maxillofacial trauma and reconstruction in New Orleans. His work in New Orleans during Hurricane Katrina earned him a national community service award, and his research work also earned him a national resident award.

Dr. Mohamed remained in New Orleans to complete medical school, a general surgery internship, and his residency in Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery at Louisiana State University. His training there involved trauma, pathology, corrective jaw surgery, and cosmetic surgery of the face. After spending 10 years understanding the human face, he joined Dr. Howard Tobin for a fellowship in cosmetic surgery.

Today, Dr. Mohamed continues to focus his extensive education and experience on cosmetic and reconstructive surgery at Carolinas Faces. His interests include otoplasty (ear surgery), cosmetic corrective jaw surgery, rhinoplasty (nose reshaping), and liposculpture. Known for his compassionate, patient-centered approach, Dr. Mohamed takes time to understand your unique goals, lifestyle, and vision for your transformation. His dedication to patient care, safety, and clinical excellence is unwavering, and he upholds the
